

Notes of Women's Clubs—Affairs in Society

Elections for Year Held By Many Women's Clubs

Half a Dozen Breakfasts Planned Before the Middle of May to Mark Work of Organizations

Most of the meetings of the women's clubs in the last few days have been held for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the ensuing year to complete details for the breakfasts, musicales and dinners which will wind up the season's activities. Half a dozen of the clubs will hold breakfasts between now and the middle of May.

At the meeting of the Woman's Municipal League at the Hotel Astor last Thursday, the following were elected to office: President, Mrs. Frederick C. Hodgdon; first vice-president, Mrs. Frederick Lee Ackerman; second vice-president, Mrs. Richard B. Aldcroft; third vice-president, Mrs. Townsend Souder; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles M. Hough; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward G. Nellis; and treasurer, Mrs. Malcolm Goodridge.

Directors elected for the three-year term ending on March 31, 1925, were Mrs. Charles M. Hough, Miss Florence King, Mrs. Edward G. Nellis, Mrs. Townsend Souder, Mrs. Edward S. Van Zile, Mrs. John Kirkland Clark and Mrs. Henry A. Wise.

The league has this year tried the experiment of uniting the health, public welfare, courts and prison and food committees of last season into one group called the City Welfare Committee. It has visited the Tombs, the women's department of the Workhouse, Welfare Island, Randall's Island, the Home of the Aged, Central and Neurological hospitals, Juvenile Court, Baby Welfare Station and the Department of Child Hygiene. Experts from each of the sub-committees have studied these institutions from the standpoint of health, occupational therapy, work and food—its quantity, quality and nutritive value.

The annual business meeting of the Woman's Republican Club, Inc., was held in the Rose Room of the Hotel Astor last Tuesday. The following directors were elected: Mrs. Alfred O. Ommen, Mrs. A. Summer Rose, Mrs. Francis A. Winslow, Mrs. Ruth Litt, Mrs. John Elliot Curran, Miss Esther W. Scherer and Mrs. Henry A. Simon. Reports of committees of last season were read and important business matters were discussed.

The Ray Current Events Club, Mrs. J. W. Loeb, president, held its annual meeting Monday morning at the Hotel Astor. The officers elected for the coming year include the president, Mrs. John H. G. O'Brien; first vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Slack; second vice-president, Mrs. Samuel Schiff; third vice-president, Mrs. Angeline V. Orr; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Orr; corresponding secretary, and Mrs. F. S. Clark, treasurer.

A part of the morning session was given to a lecture on parliamentary law by Mrs. Orr, in which the manner of conducting a meeting, the order of business and the principal terms of the rules were the principal topics. Mrs. Wagner read an interesting paper on music.

The annual luncheon of the Government Club, Mrs. George C. Owens, president, will be held Saturday at the Hotel Astor. The officers elected for the coming year include the president, Mrs. Vernon Lee, Mrs. Luther Bissell, Mrs. P. J. Gantt, Mrs. W. F. Hessel, Mrs. S. Seigner, Miss Marie Clarke, Mrs. George Sultzback, Mrs. J. W. A. Griffin, Mrs. E. T. Herbert, Mrs. F. McDougall and Mrs. Thomas Sweeney.

At the last meeting the following were elected to office: Mrs. George C. Owens, president; Mrs. Charles H. Griffin, Mrs. W. H. Demarest, Mrs. Howard W. Sullivan, vice-presidents; Mrs. H. Hoyt, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur Smith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. P. J. Gantt, treasurer, and Mrs. Minos H. Murray, director.

The Michigan Women in New York, Inc., Mrs. John A. Bush, president, will hold their annual meeting Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria. The report of the nominating committee will be given and the election of officers and standing committee. The club has voted to raise money to build and furnish one of the huts for the convalescent veterans' camp for tubercular war veterans at Tupper Lake. The president has been appointed captain for Michigan for the month of April.

Mrs. Stowell Stebbins, chairman of the former work at Fox Hills Ward No. 1, will continue her work at the Naval Hospital in Brooklyn to which the boys have been transferred.

Mrs. Sydney W. Lockhart, chairman of the philanthropic work, will continue her work Mondays at her home, 102 West Twenty-third Street, for the month of April.

The annual Maxtime festival and reception will be given by the Verdi Club, Mrs. Florence Foster Jenkins, president, on the roof garden of Hotel Astor, Wednesday, May 3. Mrs. Charles Benjamin Phillips, chairman of the Verdi Club, has arranged many delightful surprises. The Verdi Club juniors, Miss Athalia Rogers, chairman, will be the ushers and will wear organdie costumes in pastel shades and large picture hats of the same shades. They will carry shower bouquets of spring flowers and wands wreathed in roses. Junior members include Rita Marzio, Marion Smith, George Rortolillo, Beatrice Van Saun, Corisande Carter, Mary B. Phillips, Dunstan, Anna Curry and Jose Eliaz.

An hour of music will be given during which Miss Edna Moreland will sing a program of French songs, accompanied by E. W. Riesberg, and Eugenia Jones will whistle "A Bird Call from the Forest"; numbers by Grieg will be played by Aurora Mauro-Cottone.

The hostesses with tables of ten or more include: Mrs. John Moran, Miss Athalia Rogers, Mrs. J. Jones Christie, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Chatterton, Mrs. Glen Parker, Mrs. Mauro-Cottone, Mrs. Marion Smith, Mrs. B. Phillips, Miss Claire Spencer, Mrs. Eduardo Marzia, Mrs. Elmer Shock, Mrs. J. W. Stoker and Mrs. Oscar Gemunder.

At the recent ball of the silver sky-larks given by the club, Mrs. Florence Foster Jenkins, president, was presented with a string of pearls as a token of appreciation of the work done for the Verdi Club during the year. A satisfactory sum of money was raised, the ball, which will shortly be presented to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Walter Arthur Scott gave a tea on Tuesday for the blue bird committee of the club at the Hotel Ambassadors.

Theoria, Mrs. Harold George Wood, president and founder, will hold its second annual Easter breakfast on Monday, April 24, in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The ballroom will be a bower of yellow blossoms and dogwood. Among those who have already accepted invitations as guests of

Miss Conkey and Miss Maloney are members of the Calvary Club, at the Hotel Plaza to-morrow night

Anglers Enjoy Trout Season in Berkshires

Dr. Stokes, With His Two Sons, Follow Streams on Mountain Farm

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
THE BERKSHIRES, Mass., April 15.—This was the opening day of the Berkshire trout season. Most of the brooks are still ice cold and flooded, but anglers' clubs and game wardens have stocked the important streams and excellent fishing is anticipated. The Rev. August Phelps, Dr. Stokes, and his two sons, was out to-day with his two sons on the stream that rushes down through his Brook Farm from Richmond Mountain.

Miss Emily Tuckerman, who has been spending two weeks at her villa in Stockbridge, is to sail April 25 for a three months' trip through France, Spain and Sweden. She has leased the Old Place at Stockbridge to Mrs. Charlotte Graydon and sisters, Miss Charlotte Bruce Arnold and Miss Graydon Arnold, of New York. Mrs. Graydon arrived on Tuesday.

Mrs. Churchill Satterlee has leased her Cliffwood Street house in Lenox to Mrs. Nalbro Bartley, author, who is to write a novel this summer with a Berkshire background.

Dr. and Mrs. John Dodge Peters, of New York, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Barrington. They are to pass the summer in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turley Mackie are to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Van Cortlandt, of New York, at Sharon, Conn., most of the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kirchway Livermore, of New York, are to occupy this season the Cliffwood Street villa owned by her father, George E. Livermore, which was taken last year by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wolcott Griswold.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt have returned to Chicago after spending three weeks at the Purinton Inn at Stockbridge.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Heads Camp Committee

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, yesterday informed the executive committee of the Veterans' Mountain Camp for tubercular ex-service men that she had accepted the post of chairman of the advisory committee.

Included among the members of the advisory committee are Mrs. Harry Harkness, Flagler, Mrs. Edward McKee, Mrs. Henry S. Fleming, Mrs. Oliver Bridgman, Mrs. Pierson Hamilton, Mrs. Julian Robbins, Elbridge Gerry Snow, Justice John R. Davies, Mrs. Minnie Pinchot, Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, Mrs. Eldridge Roosevelt, Mrs. Otto Kahn, Mrs. F. L. Luterbach, Miss Christine Foster, Major Burkyne Hamilton, Mrs. Albert L. Satterlee and Miss Gertrude D. Barham.

Tea and Fete to Assist City's First Spanish Nursery

A tea and fete will be held next Saturday afternoon at the Majestic, in aid of the Day Nursery of San Jose de la Montana, at 432 West Twentieth Street. The nursery, a first Spanish institution of its kind to be opened in New York, is being conducted by Spanish nuns exiled from Mexico. The Spanish speaking people of New York have become interested in the nursery and intend to make it a permanent and successful addition to their activities in this city.

A committee in charge of the tea and fete to be given next Saturday, is headed by Mrs. F. E. Fonseca, of 48 West Seventy-third Street. Other members are Mrs. A. C. Gonzales Jr., Colonel Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, Mrs. de Cespedes, Mrs. William E. Little, Mrs. Eugene Galvin, Mrs. Jose Suarez, Mrs. F. D. White, Mrs. E. Tornabell, Mrs. George J. Elitz, F. E. Fonseca Jr., George Quinn, and Misses Marion L. Maloney, Elizabeth Murphy, Annie Templeton, Helen Reiser, Sallie McKenna, Rita Dooly and Annie Templeton.

Bal Masque to Reopen Activities at Kew Gardens

Guests of Kew Gardens Inn are looking forward to the resumption of formal social activities, which will be inaugurated with a black and white bal masque to-morrow evening.

The tennis season has arrived at Kew Gardens and the courts at the inn and the club, now in full swing, are meeting with an early spring popularity.

Among the recent arrivals at the inn are Lieutenant Commander C. W. Zone, U. S. N., of the Panama Canal Zone, and Mrs. Herbert H. C. Bellinger, vice-president of the Chile Copper Company, who has returned to New York after a visit to South America; and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Nolan, and Mrs. M. A. Seed, of Pelham, N. Y., and her two daughters, the Misses Avis and Edythe Seed.

Miss CLAIRE CONWAY

Anglers Enjoy Trout Season in Berkshires

Dr. Stokes, With His Two Sons, Follow Streams on Mountain Farm

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
THE BERKSHIRES, Mass., April 15.—This was the opening day of the Berkshire trout season. Most of the brooks are still ice cold and flooded, but anglers' clubs and game wardens have stocked the important streams and excellent fishing is anticipated. The Rev. August Phelps, Dr. Stokes, and his two sons, was out to-day with his two sons on the stream that rushes down through his Brook Farm from Richmond Mountain.

Miss Emily Tuckerman, who has been spending two weeks at her villa in Stockbridge, is to sail April 25 for a three months' trip through France, Spain and Sweden. She has leased the Old Place at Stockbridge to Mrs. Charlotte Graydon and sisters, Miss Charlotte Bruce Arnold and Miss Graydon Arnold, of New York. Mrs. Graydon arrived on Tuesday.

Mrs. Churchill Satterlee has leased her Cliffwood Street house in Lenox to Mrs. Nalbro Bartley, author, who is to write a novel this summer with a Berkshire background.

Dr. and Mrs. John Dodge Peters, of New York, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Barrington. They are to pass the summer in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turley Mackie are to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Van Cortlandt, of New York, at Sharon, Conn., most of the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kirchway Livermore, of New York, are to occupy this season the Cliffwood Street villa owned by her father, George E. Livermore, which was taken last year by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wolcott Griswold.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Heads Camp Committee

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, yesterday informed the executive committee of the Veterans' Mountain Camp for tubercular ex-service men that she had accepted the post of chairman of the advisory committee.

Included among the members of the advisory committee are Mrs. Harry Harkness, Flagler, Mrs. Edward McKee, Mrs. Henry S. Fleming, Mrs. Oliver Bridgman, Mrs. Pierson Hamilton, Mrs. Julian Robbins, Elbridge Gerry Snow, Justice John R. Davies, Mrs. Minnie Pinchot, Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, Mrs. Eldridge Roosevelt, Mrs. Otto Kahn, Mrs. F. L. Luterbach, Miss Christine Foster, Major Burkyne Hamilton, Mrs. Albert L. Satterlee and Miss Gertrude D. Barham.

Tea and Fete to Assist City's First Spanish Nursery

A tea and fete will be held next Saturday afternoon at the Majestic, in aid of the Day Nursery of San Jose de la Montana, at 432 West Twentieth Street. The nursery, a first Spanish institution of its kind to be opened in New York, is being conducted by Spanish nuns exiled from Mexico. The Spanish speaking people of New York have become interested in the nursery and intend to make it a permanent and successful addition to their activities in this city.

A committee in charge of the tea and fete to be given next Saturday, is headed by Mrs. F. E. Fonseca, of 48 West Seventy-third Street. Other members are Mrs. A. C. Gonzales Jr., Colonel Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, Mrs. de Cespedes, Mrs. William E. Little, Mrs. Eugene Galvin, Mrs. Jose Suarez, Mrs. F. D. White, Mrs. E. Tornabell, Mrs. George J. Elitz, F. E. Fonseca Jr., George Quinn, and Misses Marion L. Maloney, Elizabeth Murphy, Annie Templeton, Helen Reiser, Sallie McKenna, Rita Dooly and Annie Templeton.

Bal Masque to Reopen Activities at Kew Gardens

Guests of Kew Gardens Inn are looking forward to the resumption of formal social activities, which will be inaugurated with a black and white bal masque to-morrow evening.

The tennis season has arrived at Kew Gardens and the courts at the inn and the club, now in full swing, are meeting with an early spring popularity.

Among the recent arrivals at the inn are Lieutenant Commander C. W. Zone, U. S. N., of the Panama Canal Zone, and Mrs. Herbert H. C. Bellinger, vice-president of the Chile Copper Company, who has returned to New York after a visit to South America; and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Nolan, and Mrs. M. A. Seed, of Pelham, N. Y., and her two daughters, the Misses Avis and Edythe Seed.

500 Will Attend Dinner Dance of Criterion Society

Sixth and Final Affair of Season Next Friday Evening; Mrs. Hill to Greet Club Members and Friends

The American Criterion Society, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill, president, gives its sixth and final dinner-dance of the season next Friday evening at the Hotel Commodore. Reservations have been made by 500 club members. Two hundred others will come in later for the dance and supper, which will be served at midnight. Mrs. D. George Dery and Mrs. George Paterno are co-chairmen of the affair. The dinner will be served at 7:30. The dance will begin at 8:30. The dinner will be served at 7:30. The dance will begin at 8:30. The dinner will be served at 7:30. The dance will begin at 8:30.

Mrs. Hill will greet the club members and their friends in the foyer to the big ballroom. An informal reception will be held at 7:30 and dancing begins one hour later.

Dr. John Strother Gaines Jr. heads the floor committee. His vice-chairman is James Ver Planck Riker, and the two will be assisted by twenty-eight men. William H. Peck is chairman of the souvenir committee.

Among the club members who will entertain the parties of eight and ten guests are Mrs. William J. Sloane, Mrs. Joseph Purcell, Mrs. Myron Wilbur Robinson, Mrs. Sidney B. Whitlock, Mrs. Charles Vincent Astor, Mrs. John H. Judge, Mrs. Marie Zerkow, Mrs. Thomas Pitman Spencer, Mrs. Joseph Paterno, Mrs. Charles A. Bartholomew, Mrs. John Strother Gaines Jr., Mrs. Arthur Veil Rose and Mrs. Richard C. Hart.

Mrs. Hill will have a party of twenty. Her guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Schwab, South Bethlehem, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. D. George Dery, and Mrs. Frederick Andrews Bages, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Corso, Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Hadley, Mrs. W. Edgar Pruden, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Prentice, Miss Ruby Rees, Louis C. Naisa, Leonard L. Hill and Russell Pruden.

The matrons of the dance will be Mrs. Raymond Penfield, Mrs. Robert E. Lee Cochran, Mrs. Minthorne Woolley, Mrs. Seales Babbitt, Mrs. John H. Herreshoff, Mrs. Adele Barr Wright, Mrs. Thomas Pitman Spencer, Mrs. Robert Howard Beattie, Mrs. Herman Hoops Jr., Mrs. E. Provost-Batterton, Mrs. Charles S. Gauthron, Mrs. Joseph Fanning, Mrs. Edward J. Jenkins, Mrs. B. Rudy Cole, Mrs. Henry Brewster Mack, Mrs. Samuel French Kingston, Mrs. Joseph Bradley Read, Mrs. Richard C. Hart, Mrs. Newton W. Gilbert, Mrs. C. E. Thirde and Mrs. Francis E. Hadley.

On Tuesday, at the Waldorf-Astoria, the National California Club will entertain a party with Mrs. William R. Stewart, chairman. This club will give a subscription dance April 28 at 9 p. m., at Delmonico's. Mrs. Thomas J. Vivian is chairman and Mrs. Frances H. Carle is co-chairman, with a large committee of attractive young people.

The social day of the New York Theater Club, Mrs. Belle de Rivera, president, will be held Tuesday at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Emma Kip Edwards is chairman of the day, and has arranged an interesting program. The speakers and guests of the day include Margaret Lawrence and Allen Dinehart, of the "Lawful Larceny" company.

Others are Miss Alexandra Carlyle, of "The Truth About Blayds" company; Miss Edith King, of "Thank-U," Whitford Kane, of "The Pigeon," and Maurice Brown, of the Greenwich Village Theater. Other speakers are Miss Mary Wood, president of the Woman's State of Republican Association, and Blanche Cornwell Pennington. The club will attend the matinee of "The Czarina" on April 26.

Arrangements have been completed for the president's day luncheon of the Women's Health Protective Association of New York, of which Mrs. Ralph Trautman is president, and which is the one big social event of the year of this club. The luncheon, which will be given on Tuesday, May 2, at the Hotel Astor, will be preceded by a reception at 12:30. The luncheon committee includes Mrs. Alfred Richmond, chairman, who will be assisted by Mrs. J. Hedges Crowell, Mrs. Victor H. Emerson Jr., Mrs. John H. Debevoise, Mrs. Howard H. Kane, and Mrs. Eugene N. Scudder. Mrs. George J. Soper is chairman of program, Mrs. Benjamin N. Scudder, chairman of entertainment; Mrs. Helen Van Reed, chairman of music and Mrs. Carl P. Schmid of decorations.

The luncheon committee, of which Mrs. Eugene J. Cumsky is chairman, includes Mrs. John Francis Barry, Mrs. Walter J. Beron, Mrs. David Bratter, Mrs. Lilian Covert, Mrs. George Eilers, Mrs. N. P. Jewett, Mrs. Louise Jewett, Mrs. Joseph Knecht, Mrs. John F. Lovell, Mrs. Augustus H. Levy, Mrs. Emile Neuman, Mrs. Oscar L. Mussi, Mrs. P. N. Nickerson, Mrs. James P. Ranson, Mrs. Martin H. Smith, Mrs. Henry H. Smith, Mrs. Edward G. Towne, Mrs. Henry P. Wall, Mrs. Emily Whitehead, Miss Emma Beers, Miss Anna G. Brougham, Miss Mary A. Phillips, Miss Anna Voorhis. An enormous amount of usual interest will follow the luncheon.

Life as a Fine Art Club held its Easter meal at the Hotel Commodore on Wednesday. Mrs. Mildred Manley Easton, founder and president of the club, opened the meeting. Mrs. Easton gave the last lecture on "Life as a Fine Art." Mrs. Easton, who is the author of "The Transforming Touch of Power," Mrs. F. A. Gardner related the aims and objects of the club, and presented ten new members.

Mrs. Elsa Nulsen, president's aid, introduced Mrs. Thais Magrane, who explained the work for the American Veterans' Mountain Camp near Tupper Lake. The club pledged $250 for a hut, to be named "Life as a Fine Art." Many of the club members are arranging to open their homes for card parties, teas, theatricals, etc., to raise funds for this purpose. Among them are Mrs. A. R. Miller, Mrs. Louis Arata, Mrs. Walter H. Gahagan, Mrs. George Paterson, Mrs. William J. Hancock, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. N. A. Johnson and Mrs. Sol Frost.

Mrs. George M. Clyde gave an interesting talk on "Current Events in Poetry." Mrs. Leopold sang a group of songs. The chairman for the federation scholarship card party is Mrs. Eva Ross. Delegates to the federation are Mrs. Mildred Manley Easton, Mrs. Charles Hatch, Mrs. Sol Frost and Mrs. George Paterson.

The Maypole supper and dance of the club will be held May 10 at Stockton Chambers, 306 West 109th Street. Tickets, at $1.50 each, may be obtained from Mrs. Nellie A. Johnson, chairman, 960 East Fourteenth Street, Brooklyn.

At the Continental Congress of the

D. A. R. to be held in Washington next week Mrs. Charles H. Layng, of Battle Pass Chapter of the D. A. R. and a member of the New York Genealogical Society, will present to the Memorial Continental Hall, a Harding blue gem named for the wife of the President, who is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It is the gift of the Battle Pass Chapter D. A. R. of Brooklyn, and will be placed in the Museum of Memorial Hall. Assisting Mrs. Layng at the presentation will be Mrs. Fred Hexon Baldwin and Mrs. Charles White Nash. Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general of the D. A. R., will receive the gem on behalf of the national society.

Gala Concert to Increase Vassar College Salary Fund

A gala concert of the Mendelssohn and the University glee clubs, assisted by Rosa Fonelle, will be given for the benefit of Vassar College salary endowment fund next Tuesday night in the Metropolitan Opera House. The audience promises to be quite representative, the music profession and the realm of higher education. Among the box holders are Mr. Harlow Satterlee, Julius Barnes, Mrs. Elton Huntington Hooker, Miss Isabella Ferris J. Meigs, Mrs. F. F. Thompson, Mrs. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, Mrs. Henry Noble MacCracken, Mrs. Charles Buck, Mrs. M. J. H. T. Gillespie, Mrs. Edward F. Hutton and Mrs. William Henry Hays.

The program will include the "Grade Song" by Edward McDowell, formerly leader of the Mendelssohn Glee Club. The group of opening numbers will be sung by both club and will include "At Sea" by Dudley Buck, "The Maid of the Valley" by J. Herberg, and "Ave Maria" by W. Gerike. This will be followed by alternate group numbers by the two clubs, with Rosa Fonelle in between. This will be the first time in their history that the Mendelssohn and University glee clubs have been heard in joint concert.

The wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Trauman and John F. Groel will take place at noon, April 20. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trauman, of 44 New Street, East Orange. Mr. Groel's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. John C. Groel, of Newark.

Stern Brothers

West Forty-second and West Forty-third Streets.

DRESS SILKS

At Substantial Concessions from Regular Prices

Satin Charmeuse—A complete assortment of colors, including ample quantities of Black and White. Excellent quality and weight.

40 inches wide $1.75 per yard

Imported White Habutai Silk—Good quality and weight. 36 inches wide 95c

Black Imported Dress Satin—Good quality 40 inches wide $3.45

Black Imported Dress Satin—Fine quality 40 inches wide 3.95

Black Italian Dress Satin—Very good quality 40 inches wide 1.95

Black Dress Taffeta—Good quality, weight and lustre. 35 inches wide 1.25

Silk Department—Second Floor

FURS TO COLD STORAGE—NOW.

SECURE SAFETY FROM MOTH DAMAGE

Telephone Murray Hill 5888 and Wagon Will Call

Household Furniture Stored. Warehouses Fireproof. Silverware Stored. Safety Guaranteed Against Fire and Theft. Safes for Securities and Valuables.

LINCOLN SAFE DEPOSIT CO.

42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Correct Wedding Requisites for the Bridegroom

Distinctive Shirts, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery, House Robes, Etc., of Luxurious Quality

H. Sulka & Company

SHIRTMAKERS AND HABERDASHERS

512 FIFTH AVENUE—43RD ST.—NEW YORK

The Care of Furs Requires The Knowledge of Experts

Balch-Price & Co.

Furriers for Nearly a Century

FULTON & SMITH STREETS, BROOKLYN

Telephone Triangle 5900

2% on Valuation of $500 or More 3% on Lesser Valuation